

Inland Empire Section

www.ies-apa.org

Or find us on:

Linked in

Why you should be an American Planning Association (APA) Member

"...the APA community — a diverse network of planners, commissioners, public officials, educators, students, and engaged citizens who are applying the benefits of planning to cities, towns, and neighborhoods nationwide."

10 Reasons to Join APA CA

- AICP Certification 1
- Planning Resources 2
- Newsletters 3
- Planning Magazine 4
- Professional Development 5
- Networking 6
- Awards/Recognition 7
- Advocacy 8
- Legislative Resource 9
- Scholarships 10

Chapter-Only Benefits

As a Chapter-Only member, you will be entitled to:

- All Chapter and Section publications, including the "Cal Planner".
- A discount at the annual APA California state conference.
- The opportunity to participate on the APA California Legislative Review Team.
- Membership in the California Planning Foundation (CPF).

For application information please visit: www.ies-apa.org

Membership Benefit

Every month, thousands of people — professionals and interested laypeople alike — read Planning to learn how innovative planning programs and techniques are reshaping America's communities.

Find out about upcoming workshops/events at www.ies-apa.org

The Mission of APA California:

Making great

Communities

happen through good planning

Membership Questions:

Aaron Pfannenstiel: AJP@rbf.com
Daniel Arvizo: darvizo.apa@gmail.com

Upcoming Conferences 2011/12:

- National Conference in Los Angeles, 4/14/2012
- State Conference in Rancho Mirage, 10/21-25/2012

Membership Has its Rewards

You can have access to local, regional, State, and National APA events and resources at a discounted rate. For more information on events or membership, visit the following websites :

Inland Empire Chapter: www.ies-apa.org

State: www.calapa.org

National: www.planning.org

Join the free IES-APA mailing list by visiting www.IES-APA.org. Sign up to receive our electronic Newsletter.

www.ies-apa.org

