

City of Berkeley

Planning Director

Monthly salary range: 11,481.00 - $15,783.00

The City offers a comprehensive executive benefits package.

The City of Berkeley (pop. 112,500), is seeking an exceptional leader to serve as their next Planning Director. Bordered by San Francisco Bay to the west and rolling hills to the east, Berkeley is renowned for its green space, mild weather, and world-class cultural life.

Under the administrative direction of the City Manager, the Planning Director serves as head of the Department of Planning and Development with responsibility for the planning, organization, financial management and effective operation of the department and its programs and services. These include comprehensive City planning, building code enforcement, zoning, energy and sustainable development and toxics management. The Department is supported by 58 full time equivalent staff and an FY 11-12 budget of $11 million.

The ideal candidate is a sophisticated planning and development executive who possesses broad experience in all areas of planning and development. Candidates should have a working knowledge of planning technology and a proven track record of visionary thinking that has enabled previous organizations under his/her leadership to thrive. This position requires a demonstrated ability for working successfully with citizens, planning groups, neighborhood associations, neighborhood development corporations and other community based organizations. The position also requires considerable community contact and the ability to have a successful working relationship with the City Council and appointed boards and commissions.
